

Latest from Markets Briefing

Wall Street gains momentum on US infrastructure deal

Global stocks drift as investors weigh Fed tone against inflation pressures

US stocks rise as Powell strikes dovish tone

Markets Briefing Equities + Add to myFT

Wall Street notches best week since February after Biden infrastructure deal

Equity investors shrug off high US inflation reading that knocked Treasuries

Naomi Rovnick in London and Francesca Friday in New York
YESTERDAY

Stocks on Wall Street notch best week since February

S&P 500 index, weekly % change

Source: Refinitiv © FT

Ten-year US Treasury yields rose by nearly three basis points to 1.53 per cent at the market close as government debt prices softened.